Scranton Police Capt. Lawrence Wazlawczak was named the interim chief on May 18 after Lt. James Wirick was removed from the position following his arrest on corruption charges. Wirick was arrested on May 9 after he admitted to investigators that he had provided money for his meals and entertainment and accepted "allowances" from two suspended Scranton police officers. In return, he received sex from them and "presents" in an attempt to get them back on the job, according to court records. Wazlawczak is a 26-year veteran of the department and has been with the department since 2005. He has been a captain since 2014 and has been in charge of the department's K-9 unit since 2014. Wazlawczak worked in the narcotics unit from 2002 to 2006, and has also been a member of the patrol division. "I am honored to be selected as the interim chief and to serve the city of Scranton at this time," Wazlawczak said. "I am committed to doing my best for the men and women of the department and I am very confident that we can create a healthy work environment for all members." Councilwoman Maureen Casso made a motion at the meeting to select Waz 3e33713323
