Marijuana is one of the more controversial topics among mainstream media. We all know that it's still not legal in all 50 states, but there is a growing number of states that are allowing marijuana to be used in the medicinal and therapeutic sense. But a new poll from Harvard shows that a majority of Americans don't think that medical marijuana is a good idea. According to the poll, 55 percent of Americans oppose the legalization of medical marijuana. This is a significant change in public opinion. In 2000, a Gallup poll showed that a mere 40 percent of Americans opposed the legalization of medical marijuana. If anything, the current numbers reflect a strong bias against marijuana in America. So is it the government who is the big enemy of marijuana? If anything, it is the opinionated media who have helped to shape public opinion against it. Hollywood
