I am a little out of date in the world of computers so I have always been a little uncomfortable with all the strange jargon surrounding technology...so I downloaded the software, but found a problem. When I try to unzip the disk, the.exe program fails to close. We cannot get the files to install with these files tried making a new install unable to find other files cannot unzip files cannot install cannot unzip files cannot install the files cannot unzip files cannot install the files 1.) Can I have any of these files? 2.) Would the link you post below work to make a.zip file? You might have to email the file to yourself, I'm not sure. ....there is absolutely no way to run this software on a Windows Media Center (WMC) or MediaPortal (MPR) machine. The software requires the 5th codec installed, and the way I installed that codec was to download the files off the Windows Update site.... To install Dreamweaver 8.0.2 on Windows Xp (64bit) a registration key (HP_u16D163D) is needed. This registration key gives you the license to register unlimited times the software. Download from here: Information: To install: Unpack in a folder and execute
