Minesweeper is a popular classic puzzle game. It is the perfect "brain teaser" for all kinds of players and friends. The objective of the game is to mark all the safe places on a grid filled with randomly placed bombs. A bomb explodes when it is touched by the player. At any time, the player can draw a line through a bomb, if there are no more moves, then all the bombs will explode. In this version you can play against 3 competitors at the same time. You need to eliminate your opponents by placing bombs on their pieces, one at a time. The game features a variety of different board types, the same as in the original Minesweeper. The game can be downloaded in four languages: English, French, German, and Spanish. Fantasy Flight Games has announced the Wrathstone, a new premium dice tower based on the character-driven tactical fantasy world of Mark of the Warlord. The Wrathstone contains 1,000 premium, cloth-wrapped 20-sided dice in the style of popular collector's items such as Dwarven Halls or Dragon's Breath dice. Meticulously crafted, the Wrathstone's steel frame with eight horizontal rods allows for the random reordering of the dice by rotating the dice in a swivel-mounted mechanism. The upper and lower shelves of the tower have been designed to provide a sturdy base for any gaming table. The Wrathstone is the perfect addition to any game collection. It is approximately 26 inches tall and 6 inches deep, and ships in a wooden crate. Visit the Fantasy Flight Games website for more information on this new product. Fully inspired by the popular board game Risk, Scrabble X's goal is to ensure that each letter of your chosen word has been represented on the board, while not exceeding the maximum number of points available for that letter. This ensures that you're able to play a winning game on the Scrabble board. Conversely, Scrabble X tries to make sure that none of the tiles on
