Q: Can mhb using SQL requests? Good evening. I'm having trouble on an webapp. It has 2 webapp that were made and are working fine. Now, I want to see if I can re-use some logic and I come across the following situation, I have a Users table with the following fields: id fName sName The User table has this status field that indicates if the user is marked as active or inactive. As the logic if an user is marked as inactive it will not be possible to use the public webapp that contains the MainPage.php file. So, I thought to create 2 other user tables that will store the status the user will have and whenever the user wants to publish the data of the website, the request will be done on the AspNetWeb.php file using the UserID that is related to the user in this active or inactive status. Can somebody give me an idea on how to store the users that are not active using SQL? A: I think you need to store the inactive users separately, using a DB table name UserStatus. You can query to get users which are active and inactive
