of things, social networking and the internet of everything. This has led to a new field called online publishing. The most famous is publishing on the internet while books are printed on paper and distributed via physical means. The internet has provided a system for the dissemination of information and the ideal medium for the presentation and distribution of knowledge. That is why libraries across the globe are providing access to internet enabled information via computers and other electronic devices. This information can be downloaded via the internet. Also, the internet is the ideal medium for publishing material, mostly ebooks and books. These publications can be online books, printed books and publications like magazines, calendars, books, newspapers and periodicals. Compared to offline books, online books are easy to download. They are also cheap and convenient. Still, online publishing is not a new concept because it began as early as 1940 in different forms. For example, online databases and encyclopedias that are available online have been providing public access to information for a long time. A huge variety of electronic publishers have also been creating information products online. One of the most common ebooks are blogs. These blogs are used to share personal stories and views about a particular topic. The internet has made it possible for anyone to publish their own ebooks. This is the main reason why there has been a proliferation of ebooks online.

There are different types of ebooks available online. These include self publishing ebooks, digital rights managed ebooks and ebooks published by
