reinstall CAM. Don't feel bad, you aren't the first to be stuck like this. The solution is to manually install CAM as per information provided in this document: Thanks John How to Design the Home Office You Truly Deserve Make the home office the creative space it was meant to be. Decorating and redecorating your home office is a constant, depending on your needs and wants. We've put together a couple of different design tips and tricks to help you make the home office the space you're hoping for. Choose furniture to reflect your personality Your home office is often an extension of your personality. If you want to foster creativity, you're going to need your home office to reflect that. Perhaps it's an area of your home where you want to get away from the stresses of the rest of the house, or it could be a place to create something of beauty. If you spend a lot of time in your home office, it might be a place where you want to save money as well. That can mean less and less fancy furniture. It might be good to go with a budget but also pick a style that will make you want to make the most out of your time in the office. Make this the place you want to be in every day. Of course you can always mix and match different furniture styles, but you should
